

Jacobs Wells Baths: Team Biography's

Project Manager/Quantity Surveyor – Burke Hunter Adams

Richard Ward BSc MRICS: Experienced Partner and Project Lead with a strong background in project delivery and management.

Rebecca Gloyn BSc MRICS: Chartered Quantity Surveyor and Project Manager adept at managing complex projects with a focus on communication and system implementation. Has worked on past projects including the refurbishment of Grade 2 listed country house and grounds near Shaftesbury and the refurbishment of collection of buildings to form a museum in Oxford

Liam Clements BSc: Seasoned Quantity Surveyor known for meticulous attention to detail and proficiency in document production and measurement software.

Ethan Davidson BSc Dip: Versatile Project Manager/Quantity Surveyor recognised for expertise in refurbishment projects and Contract Administration support, boasting six years of post-graduate experience.

Design Team – PH3 Design

Sean Redmond: Bristol based Architect and Director of PH3 designs has experience in working with Listed Buildings including, Foxhill House and New Bond Street. PH3 specialise in translating client passions into innovative designs, from bespoke homes to large-scale redevelopment projects. The team at PH3 have been working with the community to support the Jacobs Wells recovery for ten years.

Corinne Fitzpatrick: A seasoned architectural professional specialising in conservation and heritage preservation. With a background from the Bartlett School of Architecture and accreditation as an RIBA Specialist Conservation Architect, she brings expertise in practical repair and design, including her experience within the Jacobs Wells Project; past projects incl Grade I listed St James Priory in Bristol and the Clifton Suspension Bridge restoration.

Mechanical Engineers – Method Consulting

Method Consulting are dedicated to reducing building environmental impact through engineering design and sustainability consultancy, employing passionate, skilled staff committed to driving forward sustainable practices. Projects include Devizes Integrated Care Centre and Thames Hospice, Windsor.

Trinity Community Arts Ltd
The Trinity Centre, Trinity Road, Bristol, BS2 0NW
0117 935 1200 info@trinitybristol.org.uk
www.trinitybristol.org.uk

Structural Engineers – Mann Williams

Darren Jones: over 30 years' structural engineering experience, Darren, a Chartered Engineer since 2000, specializes in historic conservation. He leads projects at Mann Williams, including those at Windsor Castle and Moccas Court, while overseeing inspections for Jacob Wells Road Baths and the Trinity Centre.